SAMOA AFFAIRS.

An Extended Interview With Secretary Bayard.

HE DESCRIBES THE COURSE OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT

In Relation to the Trouble and the Latest Phases of the Question, and Says Germany Has Given Us No Cause for War.
Whitney Declines to Make Public Captain Mullen's Report.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 30.—The Sun's correspondent called upon Secretary Bayard at his residence, and had an extended interview with him on the Samoan question. Mr.
Bayard described the course of the department of state in relation to Samoan affairs and the latest phases of the question. To the statement that the administration has been twisted with having no definite policy on the Samoa question, he referred to the president's message to congress and accompanying documents, which he says show that the administration long ago defined its policy with reference to the Samoan islands, and has consistently adhered to it ever since, that policy was one of friendly interest in Samoa with neutrality.

So long as the other powers having interest on the island—Great Britain and Germany—were concerned, he has exhausted the arts of diplomacy to secure the Samoan people the right to govern themselves and protection from foreign control. Germany and Great Britain both assented to the policy, and the acts of Germany, inconsistent with her professions, have grown out of petty political intrigues among native chiefs and the rivalry of foreigners for influence and commercial supremacy. With regard to the failure of this government to protest vigorously against Germany's treatment of the Samoan king, Mr. Bayard states that he had no authority for such a course. Malleo was not a citizen of the United States, and American rights had in no way been infringed. Germany claimed that he had violated his treaty obligations, and that he was an enemy whom she had the right to seize.

Mr. Bayard said he did what the treaty with Samoa obligated this country to do. He used the good offices of this country again and again in Malleo's behalf but without result. Mr. Bayard states that from the very beginning of the Samoa troubles Germany has professed the utmost friendliness to the United States and regard for American interest on the islands. Only Monday he received communication from the German minister, expressing a sincere desire to reach a settlement satisfactory to both countries.
The whole trouble, in Mr. Bayard's opinion, is due to the cause of the German trading companies which have large interests in the islands. They have striven to commit their government to endorsement of acts intended to promote their interests and practically to secure their control of affairs. The whole question for Americans to consider, Mr. Bayard says, is whether we shall continue to maintain neutrality as between Malleo and the Germans or assume the role of belligerents toward Germany in behalf of one or two claimants to the throne.

So far, Germany has given the United States absolutely no cause for war. It is not true that American property has been wantonly destroyed by the Germans or the American flag fired upon. He said the tattered remnants of the flag said to have been fired upon by the Germans had been received at the state department. It was not the flag at the American consulate, but was in a little village which was being shelled by the Germans. The village took fire and the flag was partially burned. It was not hoisted in assertion of any American rights and was not fired upon or insulted. Besides the German government has expressly disclaimed any intention of giving this country any cause of offense.

In reply to those who contrast the vigorous course of Secretary Bayard toward the puny republic of Hayti with his alleged timidity in dealing with the big empire of Germany, the secretary said the situations in Hayti and Samoa were widely different.
Hayti had distinctly violated its treaty obligations to this country and had seized an American vessel. The United States in this instance had the right to act alone, for it alone was concerned in the proceedings; complained of.

In the Samoan islands, on the other hand, American interests are only indirectly threatened. The coaling station at Pango Pango, secured to the United States by treaty, is not involved. Pango Pango is on another island, and Germany does not seek to interfere with our authority there. The Germans are confronted with pretty much the same situation in Samoa as that in which the United States were involved with Hayti.
They claim that the Samoans, as did the Haytians, broke their treaty engagements, and that they have the right to punish them.

In this connection Secretary Bayard stated an interesting fact. During the troubles growing out of the seizure of the Haytian Republic steamer the French representatives in Hayti is said to have interfered for the purpose of bringing about the confiscation of the vessel. Secretary Bayard communicated this fact to the French government which promptly disavowed its agent's conduct.

Mr. Bayard does not appear to think that Germany will be likely to do anything en-calculated to offend this country seriously if she can help it.

Speaking of the commission which met in Washington in 1887 to consider the Samoan question, Mr. Bayard said: "The protocol, or minutes of the conference were considered as confidential at the request of the British representative, Lord Sackville. In reply to a suggestion from Mr. Bayard that the protocols be made public, Lord Sackville said that her majesty's government are of the opinion that, pending the reassembling of the conference, its proceedings should be considered confidential. The German representative, when asked the same question, said:
"Those protocols, in view of the interruption and heretofore fruitless course of the conferences, which have yielded no definite result, are not suited for publication."

The protocol will show that the first conference was held June 25, 1887, at the state department and that six or seven subsequent conferences were held. The last conference was held on July 26, on which occasion there was a deadlock, the German minister submitting one proposition, and Mr. Bayard another to the manner in which Samoa should be governed. The conference adjourning to meet again in August following.
Mr. Bayard says he was, therefore, taken wholly by surprise when the German minister called at the state department one morning in August and left a memorandum stating that his government proposed to independently protect its own interests and rights in Samoa and obtain the satisfaction and reparation due to it by due to its National honor; also in case Malleo was either not willing or not powerful enough to give the necessary satisfaction for the past and sufficient guarantees for the future, to declare war against him and refuse to recognize his government.

Referring to Senator Sherman's resolution providing for the appropriation of $500,000 for maintaining a United States coaling station at Samoa, Secretary Bayard said that a great deal had been said about the prompt and patriotic action of the senate in this particular. In the first place if the Republican senators are sincere in the intention to protect American interest in Samoa against the alleged outrages of the German government $500,000 is a very small amount to go to war on. It would not purchase the 1,000,000 tons of coal which certain Republican senators say should be landed there, nor would it build a single gunboat.

Captain Mullen Submits a Report.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Secretary Whitney has received a long report from Capt.
Mullen, commanding the United States steamer Nipsic, dated at Apia, Samoa, December 20, giving a detailed account of occurrences on those islands since December 3, the date of his last report to the department, and covering the period of the engagements between the natives and the Germans, and of the alleged insults to the American flag.

A copy of the report will be furnished to the secretary of state, and will probably be transmitted to congress the latter part of this week, together with the correspondence received, on Saturday, from acting Consul General Blacklock, on the same subject. The officials refuse positively to make public, at this time, any of this correspondence, confining themselves to the simple statement that there is nothing in it that has not already appeared in the newspaper accounts of the same occurrences.

Representative Herbert, chairman of the house committee on naval affairs, called at the state department Monday, and had a conference with Secretary Bayard in regard to the situation. It is reported as likely that the president will have something more to say on the subject when he sends to congress the correspondence which has taken place since his last message.

Monday's Baltimore Sun, the organ of Secretary Bayard, in an elaborate article on "Intervention in Our Samoan Policy," says:
"The executive branch of the government is apparently firm in the opinion that its jurisdiction is absolutely terminated until decisive action of some character is taken by the legislative branch. The sight of the tattered flag, dishonored by German soldiery, ought to be a sufficient spur for the American congress to speak without delay in language which will be echoed round the world."

Discussions in the Cabinet.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—A Washington specialist to the Post says: There have been for several days rumors that there is a sharp difference of opinion in the cabinet on account of the Samoan complication. The latest form which the rumor has taken is that Secretary Whitney or Secretary Bayard may resign. Attempts made this morning to obtain any authorized information on this subject were not successful. A United States senator says he is informed that there is much feeling between the president and secretary of state on account of the Samoan matter, and that the estrangement is of a serious character. This senator says that the president holds Secretary Bayard responsible for the situation, while friends of Secretary Bayard insist that the president has interfered in the affairs of the state department and is wholly responsible.

Blaine's Samoan Policy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Senators Hale, Evarts and Cameron have had a private conference with Blaine, which lasted more than an hour. The Samoan question was the subject of discussion. Blaine gave his views very freely as to the action he believed the state department should take in the present emergency. He also outlined the policy he would suggest in disposing of legislation proposed in the house naval committee, in response to Whitney's presentation of the case.
While no one of the gentlemen present will discuss in detail the views expressed by Blaine, it is generally understood he outlined a decidedly vigorous policy. The affair naturally assumes no little significance, in view of the extreme probability that Blaine will take charge of the state department.

Ready for War.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 30.—Gen. Orton has received numerous applications from volunteers for service in case of war with Samoa. At the present rate, 10,000 men could be raised in thirty days in California.

Publicly Horsewhipped.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 30.—Miss Charles Lattin Shelton publicly horsewhipped A. J.
Burgess Monday, because the latter charged her with stealing flowers from graves in the cemetery. Burgess was severely injured.

Twenty-Seven Horses Burned.

ANNISTON, Ala., Jan. 30.—Smith's livery stable was burned Monday. Twenty-seven horses and a number of vehicles were consumed. Loss $20,000; no insurance.

Arbuckle Must Pay.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The supreme court has affirmed the verdict of $75,000 against Charles Arbuckle in the Clara Campbell breach of promise suit.

Victims of a Blizzard.

ABERDEEN, Dak., Jan. 30.—During Friday night's storm two school children near Hitchcock perished in the snow and a third was severely frozen.

FRANCE'S FUTURE

Prediction That the End of the Republic is Close at Hand.

THE SITUATION REGARDER AS OMI-NIOUS ON ALL SIDES.

President Carnot Says the Republic Has Not Been Affected by the Defeat of M.
Jacques—German Newspapers' Regard Boulanger's Success as an Evil Omen for France—Foreign Notes.

PARIS, Jan. 30.—Douléauville, presiding at a meeting of the Royalist Right Monday, said the "current events are to preclude the restoration of the monarchy. Only a few weeks ago I had the honor of being received by the Comte de Paris. I found him full of hope and thoroughly convinced that he will save France."

On all sides and by all parties the situation is regarded as ominous, and events are expected to quickly follow the Parisian endorsement of Boulanger. France has found an idol and Paris has endorsed a dictator, in the judgment of many. Yet Boulanger affects to be an uncompromising Republican.
He says:

"Paris has acclaimed our program of dissolution and a constituent assembly. It is for us to pursue its accomplishment. The exposition of 1889, that great manifestation of our National genius, must not be troubled by general elections, which, according to the constitution, are to be held on October 30 at the latest. It is better to have done with them at once. We ought to show foreign nations who are coming to visit us a constitution that is in harmony with its needs, and that has a government which emanates from the people, instead of being a bastard regime in which all the institutions are those of monarchy, and which has nothing Republican about it except its name."

President Carnot said on declining to accept the resignation of Floquet's cabinet:
"After all it was the republic that was acclaimed by the electors of the Seine. Gen.
Boulanger, like M. Jacques, had pronounced in favor of a Republican form of government. The republic is not affected by the defeat of M. Jacques, and it is the imperious duty of the cabinet to remain at its post."

The cabinet is prepared to heed the voice of Paris, and has already resolved upon measures that must very shortly either dismiss Boulanger or establish his success. Floquet has announced a program as follows: First, reform in the election law, restoring the scrutin system of voting; second, to proceed immediately with the general elections; third, passage of a law forbidding and punishing plebiscitary agitation. It is asserted that this program has been discussed by the cabinet and received their approval.

The Germans Predict Trouble.

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—The newspapers here of all shades of political opinion regard the success of Gen. Boulanger as an evil augury for the French republic, and predict that the result will lead to the overthrow of the republic and quick succeeding surprises.

The Vossische Zeitung says: "It was not Boulanger alone that was victorious, but also his program to establish a dictatorship and emphasize the fact that he is the man for the League of Patriots—that his glorious sword is to read the peace of Frankfurt and win back Alsace-Lorraine. The French mean once more to be a great nation. That is the significance of Boulanger's success for Germany. Nevertheless, owing to the personal inadequacy of Boulanger, it is doubtful whether the decisive blow is close at hand. But in any case the republic is ripe for the sickle."

The English View of the Situation.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—The complete state of terror into which the French ministry have been thrown by the election of Gen. Boulanger is rapidly detaching from adherence to the government a great many influential politicians, who, though they have no love for Boulanger, admire courage and abhor cowardice. The government set out to crush Boulanger, and their mismanaged canvas in behalf of their candidate, M. Jacques, was a supreme effort in that direction, which failed miserably.

Afraid to Be Watched.

PESTH, Jan. 30.—There was a scene of great uproar in the Hungarian parliament yesterday upon the discovery that detectives had taken places in the strangers' gallery.
The opposition members sprang to their feet, and, pacing the floor of the house, shook their fists alternately at the president and the detectives and cried: "Turn them out." The uproar increased, the excited members meanwhile conducting themselves like maniacs.
Finally the detectives rushed from the gallery into the street, but they came very near being lynched before they could make good their escape.

Attempted to Steal an American Girl.

NICK, Jan. 30.—On Friday last a London physician eloped with a pretty American blonde, aged seventeen, the daughter of a New York state official. The girl was staying at a boarding house here and, with her mother, last week, stopped at the same hotel with the doctor at Menton. The couple took a train at Vintimiglia and were arrested in Paris on Saturday. The affair has created a great sensation throughout the Riviera.

He Killed His Neighbor.

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y., Jan. 30.—Ira E.
Tabor, a wealthy farmer, residing near here, was killed yesterday evening by a neighbor, Joseph Chaplain, as the result of a quarrel growing out of the poisoning of two of Chaplain's cows last August, Chaplain having accused Tabor of the deed. The men met on the highway yesterday and after some words, Chaplain seized a stake from his sleigh and struck Tabor, killing him instantly. Chaplain gave himself up and is in jail. He claims to have acted in self defense.

He is a poor man while Tabor had large possessions. Chaplain formerly belonged to the Fifth United States artillery which was stationed here five years.

THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY.

The Ohio Legislature Will Attempt to Re- voke Its Charter.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 30.—A radical move has been nearly determined upon by the attorney general in relation to trusts and combinations in this state. It is intended to bring suit in the supreme court to revoke the charter of the Standard Oil company and the Barber Match company, of Akron, O. While it is understood that there is some hesitancy about instituting quo warranto proceedings on the evidence in hand, a few fragments of testimony, which it is believed can easily be supplied, are lacking, and when these are furnished a definite line of action will be decided upon.

The former will probably be the first one to receive attention from the state authorities. The proposed investigation into the methods of the Standard Oil company is the outcome of the movement set on foot by the legislative committee, composed of members of the senate and house, charged with the task of looking into pools and trusts. The state committee, now in Cincinnati examining into the school book monopoly, is exclusively engaged by Van Antwerp, Bragg & Company.

For some weeks the Standard Oil company was under fire, and the evidence secured has been submitted to Attorney General Watson, who has agreed to institute suit. All recognize the magnitude of an undertaking to oust the Standard Oil company, and there is a disposition to carefully consider the matter in all its bearings before taking steps. An outline of the evidence now in the possession of the committee was laid before the attorney general, who spent considerable time in looking up authorities on pools and trusts.

The proposed suit is looked upon as a bold move. The members of the committee, including Senator Taylor, chairman, are heartily in earnest. Some members of the committee are of the opinion that the evidence already collected is sufficient to warrant the proceedings. The committee expects in a few days to go to Cleveland, Lima, Findlay, Carey and other points in the productive or manufacturing district and secure additional evidence to be used in the case.

A White Cap Confesses.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Jan. 30.—The reign of the White Caps in Bloomington was of brief duration. Their threatening letters were sent to a number of respectable houses the 24th, promising sound whippings if the inhabitants did not leave the city in five days and Friday night a number of the houses were barricaded with eggs. Sunday night the police arrested Patsy O'Connell and three others who are now in jail. O'Connell was seen and recognized as he delivered one of the threatening missives, and on being arrested confessed, implicating the rest of the gang. Two of the prisoners are old offenders, each having in suspended penitentiary sentence hanging over his head.

Another Postponement.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—A telegram to the Catholic News announces the postponement of the consistory, in which, it had been expected, the vacant sees of Richmond and Natchez were to have been filled. The consistory was postponed before on account of a difference with the French government over the candidates of that country for the office of cardinal. The trouble this time is due to the fact that the pope awaits a better understanding with the Russian government concerning the appointment of bishops in the territory of the czar.

Serious Wreck in Texas.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 30.—A terrible railroad accident occurred Monday afternoon, near Plum creek bridge, to the westbound passenger train of the Southern Pacific. The freight train was partially derailed, the passenger train stopped and was rendering assistance when it was crashed into by a heavy freight which was following. A relief train, with extra coaches and several physicians, left for the scene of the wreck, fifty miles distant. The railway officials refuse to give any further information.

Paralyzed By Chewing Gum.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 30.—The most remarkable case that has come under the observation of the medical fraternity in this city for a long time is that of Mary Yountz, aged twelve years, who is suffering from facial paralysis. This affliction is due to chewing gum, she having employed the use of her jaws so constantly during the last three months that the muscles of her face are powerless, and her nerves are in a dilapidated condition.

Run Away With His Wife.

MAHON, O., Jan. 30.—About two months ago Libbie Snyder began suit for divorce from Sandy Snyder, alleging cruelty and drunkenness. At that time Sandy was in California and shortly afterward returned.
The case would not have had a hearing till next month, and now that will not be necessary, as a case of runaway with his wife has come to the surface in their quietly departing from here for the south.

The Last of the Marlowes.

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 30.—News has been brought of the death of Boone Marlow, the outlaw of Young county. He was the only one of the Marlow's left at large. He was track-ed to his hiding place in the Indian nation and shot down from ambush. The other two Marlowes were wounded and are now in the Dallas jail awaiting trial. This breaks up the most dangerous gang of outlaws that ever infested the Texas border.

James D. Fish Not Surprised.

ACRUIS, N. Y., Jan. 30.—When James D.
Fish, ex-president of the Marine bank of New York, was informed that President Cleveland had commuted his sentence to five years and six months, the old man did not express any surprise. To reporters who tried to interview him he said: "I have nothing to say." His daughter, Miss Anna Fish, has resided here ever since her father came to prison, and has been devoted to her attentions to him.

 Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY EVE., JAN. 30, 1889.

Aberdeen Marriages.

Squire Massie Beasley, the venerable matrimonialist of Aberdeen, informs the BULLETIN that there were fifty-one marriages at his office during the month of December—forty-two whites and nine colored. During the month of January, up to the present date, he has married seventeen couples. They hailed from different parts of Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and other places. This is a pretty good showing in the matrimonial line.

Lunch and Supper.

The Little Helper's Society of the Baptist Church will give a lunch and supper in the McGranaghan building, corner Third and Market streets, on Friday afternoon and evening, February 1st. The children have undertaken to finish the pulpit of the new church, and the proceeds of the supper will be devoted to that object. Refreshments of all kinds, including oysters, will be served at reasonable rates. Special inducements to families taking supper. Go and encourage the little ones. They have not appealed to the public often.

County Court Doings.

An inventory and appraisement of the trust estate of W. B. Clarke and also of W. B. Clarke & Co. was ordered recorded. The appraisement of W. B. Clarke amounted to $2,650, and that of Clarke & Co. $2,228.82.

The administrator of Jane Doty filed an inventory and appraisement of the personal estate of deceased which was ordered recorded.

George Turner qualified as administrator of Mason Turner, with John P. Campbell and Joseph R. Davis sureties. Appraisers: M. D. Farrow, J. R. Davis, B. G. Applegate.

Flour, Meal and Hominy.

We belong to no millers' association or trust. Therefore, we can make prices to suit the times. Our "Magnolia Patent," "Blue Grass Fancy," and "Kentucky Belle Family," brands of flour, full roller process, are guaranteed to be equal to any made in Maysville. Try a barrel and be convinced. Will sack flour in any size sack you wish. Highest market price paid for corn. Meal and hominy ground or exchanged. Your patronage solicited. Respectfully, CARR & TOLLE,
 Proprietors Magnolia Mills, Fourth St., Maysville.

Personal.

Miss Maggie Morris, of Mayslick, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John F. Moran.

Mrs. John Duley returned yesterday from a visit to her parents at Millersburg.

Miss Bettie Martin, of Valmont, Lewis County, is the guest of Miss Marie Allen, of West Second street.

Miss Katie Zingerle, of Madisonville, Ohio, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Joseph Brenner, of West Front street.

About $12,300,000 of gold was imported last year and over $32,000,000 exported. It won't take so very many years at that rate for other countries to get all our gold.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Notes and Comments by Superintendent Galbraith for 1888-89.

MURPHYVILLE—NO. 1.

There are seventy-one pupils on roll with an average attendance of thirty-eight.

The trustees are Dr. G. W. Gaul, Geo. Galbraith and John Wright. Mr. Wright has visited the school and has been attentive in looking after its wants, but there is not that interest on the part of the patrons which is desirable. The house is not comfortable, though fairly well furnished. There will probably be a new one built soon. The teacher in his report makes a new house his most prominent suggestion.

Mr. Thomas Chandler is teaching this school, and successfully, too. He is a faithful and well equipped teacher, and has the confidence of his pupils, and as a consequence secures their best efforts. He has succeeded very well with the written work, his greatest difficulty being the irregularity in attendance on the part of the pupils.

MINERVA—NO. 3.

There are fifty-seven pupils in all, with an average attendance of 35. Lillie Liston has lost no time.

Of the trustees only William King has visited the school. The patrons are probably interested in the school, but have given the teacher no manifestation of it. The school room is comfortable, but needs refurnishing.

This school is taught by Mrs. Lizzie Orr, who for five years has occupied this position, and I am happy to state that her work has improved steadily from year to year. She has very successfully used the written work this year. I was especially impressed with the uniform improvement and neatness in penmanship displayed by her pupils as well as by their earnest and faithful work in their studies. The discipline of the school is first-class.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

SHANNON.

Sardis is to have a female lecturer on Sunday and Monday nights.

Misses Em Trigg and Alma Riegen, the former of Olivet, the latter of Rectorville, are visiting in this locality.

Alex McCard has rented a farm near Paris, Charles Weaver, an ex-Mason, has bought a farm near Millersburg.

Mr. Charlie Bland manufactures an article of crab elder as clear as spring water, and as finely flavored as Toka wine.

Two of the brightest boys from the Malden City of Harrison County, John Poludexter and Walker Taylor, are guests of the Misses Bland.

Misses Pyles, Dyson and Bland are home again after a pleasant two weeks' carriage drive, visiting relatives in Fleming, Bath and Nicholas counties.

Mrs. Sue Wright closed her little academy at this place Friday last, celebrating the hundred and thirtieth anniversary of Robert Burns' birthday—Scotland's great song writer.

The incessant rainfall of Sunday last prevented the coming of the expected guests at the dining at Mr. A. O. White's. The new dish that was served was deliciously prepared by Mrs. A. O. White.

The silver-tongued Madam Grundy says: A gay thirty-year-old bachelor of Sardis is finally wooing and will probably win and shortly lead to Hymen's altar one of Olivet's sweetest and most charming girl-widows.

GERMANTOWN.

Evan Lloyd is an invalid.

Miss Anna Pinnipelly and Mrs. C. C. Irwin have the mumps.

Dr. A. H. Wall and wife spent several days last week with Dr. Dismitt.

Miss Maggie Barton will visit Mrs. Juliet Anderson, at Ironton, O., next week.

Professor Hayes Thomas proposes to teach a select school after the expiration of his present term.

Mrs. Sadie Holmes, of Mt. Olivet, will spend several days with Miss Fannie Pollock, who is still slightly convalescent from her serious sickness.

A meeting of the farmers was called for last Sunday afternoon to consult on the proposition to plant a decreased acreage of tobacco, but it was very thinly attended. So far as we can learn the sentiment of the planters in this section they are slow to adopt the suggestion. Tobacco with most of them is "the staff of life" and as long as they can realize from 6 to 10 cents' round they will grow it.

MAYSICK.

Mrs. Mary A. Collins returned to her home in Bourbon County last Monday morning.

This place is now suffering a neat famine. A little new bacon and a few fat chickens, turkeys, &c., would bring a good price.

Last Sunday was truly a disagreeable day. Rain, sleet, snow and rain, and at night a cold breeze struck us and left us with the appearance of winter.

One addition to the Christian Church last Sunday—John Cliff. He has baptised the same hour of the day in Judge Wilson's pond by the pastor, Rev. F. M. Tindler, who is doing a noble work among us.

MT. GILEAD.

Jack Dale is quite sick with erysipelas.

Leo Harn is crippled up at present with his ankle.

George Turner was in Maysville Tuesday on business.

A. N. Turner bought a horse of J. P. Campbell last week, paying $125.

Several of our citizens attended County Court at Flemingsburg Monday.

Boyd Muse will begin a three-month's school at Dellet's school house in about two weeks.

A. R. Wallingford, aged sixty-eight, and Mr. Sorepta A. Wallingford, aged forty-eight, were married Tuesday.

ABERDEEN.

Mumps are all the rage in this place.

Joseph Clark and wife have been visiting at Manchester.

H. C. Bricker will leave this week to visit Virginia relatives.

Captain Linton, who has been ill at Manchester, is on the convalescent list.

J. B. Helzer, representing the Morris Warehouse, Cincinnati, was in town Monday.

Wm. McQuillen has moved home from an extended visit in the northern part of the State.

An inexpressibility accompanied with an outworn all-overness is the way a young man feels when in love.

Geo. W. Schilz has been indisposed for the last week, but his many friends will learn that it is nothing serious.

Miss Belle McQuillen and Miss Lottie Wilson, who are school teaching in Kentucky, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Mrs. Cooper Fulton, wife of Cooper Fulton, a prominent young farmer of this township, and daughter of Nicholas Horton, an old and prominent Brown County man, died last Friday after a short illness and was buried Monday.

O. F. Wilson, of Cincinnati, visited his parents here Tuesday. Oscar is holler inspector for an insurance company and is a young man of rare ability and counts friends by the score gained by attractive ways and gentlemanly courtesy.

Announcements.

COUNTY ASSESSOR—We are authorized to announce JOHN B. FURLONG, of Washington precinct, as a candidate for County Assessor at the election in August, 1890, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

TOBACCO MARKET.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, proprietors Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

The offerings on our market this week have been composed mainly of new burley, and prices have been very firm with an upward tendency. As high as $18 per 100 lbs. was realized for new burley. The sales next week will likely be at a higher price, as the conditions have been favorable for handling.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for new burley tobacco:

ASSIGNEE'S SALE

—OF—

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

As Assignee of Littleton Hill, I will, on WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1889, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., on the premises, offer for sale at public auction, the valuable and desirable DWELLING HOUSE and lot of ground, on the southwestern corner of Fourth and Limes one streets, in the City of Maysville, Ky., heretofore owned and occupied by L. Hill as a residence. The house is new, with water and gas throughout, and is considered as the best built and finished frame dwelling in the city. It is in thorough repair.

Also, at the same time, I will offer for sale at public auction, the frame dwelling house and lot on the northwest corner of Limestone and Boone streets, in said city, lying immediately in the rear of the first mentioned property. The house and premises are in thorough repair, and as good as new.

Terms of sale—One third cash, and balance in equal payments at six and twelve months from date, bearing 6 per cent. interest from day of sale. A lien will be retained on property for the deferred payments.

RAILROAD NEWS.

What the Louisville Commercial Says of the Rumored Sale of the K. C.

Says the Louisville Commercial: "The news that the Kentucky Central Railroad is for sale is not surprising. Mr. Huntington only needed it to give him a Cincinnati connection, and now that he has that by way of his new Maysville and Big Sandy, the Kentucky Central is unnecessary to his system. It is reported that the L. and N. are bidders for it, and also the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia people. The latter need it to give them a desired Northern outlet. The L. and N. may find use for it as a check on the Cincinnati Southern, otherwise an outsider does not readily see what they want with it. If the L. and N. could get the Maysville and Lexington part of it, that would give them an excellent feeder for their Lexington road and open up to this market a valuable territory which has been lost to it for many years.

"It might be a good thing for the two competitors to divide the purchase, the L. and N. taking the line from Lexington to Maysville, and the East Tennessee taking the line from Covington through Paris and Richmond to Livingstone. If the East Tennessee gets into Cincinnati it will be as much interested in holding the Cincinnati Southern down to business as the L. and N. will. The Commercial, in the interest of Louisville and Kentucky—of Louisville, which needs a Maysville and blue grass connection, and Kentucky, which will be benefited by connection with the powerful East Tennessee system—would like to see the Kentucky Central system divided as above suggested. That arrangement would certainly be hailed with delight by the blue grass people."

Captain W. J. Wash, who for several months has been engaged on construction work on the Cincinnati Division of the Chesapeake and Ohio, has again resumed the duties of Roadmaster with the Kentucky Central, with headquarters at Paris, Ky.—Enquirer.

On the 10th of next month new time-cards will go into effect on both the Kentucky Central and Chesapeake and Ohio roads. On that date additional passenger trains will be put on the Cincinnati Division of the C. & O.

Louis S. Stewart, formerly Chief Train Dispatcher for the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Road, with headquarters at Pittsburgh, has been appointed Train-Dispatcher on the Kentucky Central with headquarters at Paris, Ky., taking the vacancy caused by the promotion of W. H. Anderson.

FIGHTING FOR DAMAGES.

The Legal Contest Between Some Fifth Ward Citizens and the M. & B. S. Railroad Company.

Mr. W. W. Lynch sued the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company last fall for $3,500 damages.

He resides on the north side of Third street, Fifth ward, and claims that the cutting down of that thoroughfare by the company damaged his property to the amount named in his petition.

The railroad company in its answer, denied first that the plaintiff has been damaged and then plead that in cutting the street down it acted under authority granted by the City Council of Maysville. The City Council established the grade of the street, it claimed, and the cut conformed to that grade. This was pleaded by the company in jurisdiction of what it had done. The plaintiffs demurred to the latter plea and the demurrer was heard this week in the Circuit Court.

Messrs. Wall & Worthington and T. C. Campbell are attorneys for plaintiffs and Messrs. Wadsworth & Son, Whitaker & Robertson and A. M. J. Cochran represent the company. Arguments were made by Messrs. Robertson, Worthington, Campbell and Hon. W. H. Wadsworth. Judge Cole rendered his decision yesterday, sustaining plaintiff's demurrer.

The question of damages was not passed on, but remains to be settled by a jury which was empanelled this morning. The result of the trial is awaited with much interest by the owners of property on the street.

Mr. Geo. T. Wood, who owns property on the south side of the street, has a suit pending against the company for $10,000 damages, this claim being based on the grounds set forth in Mr. Lynch's case.

Bringing Gladness

To millions, pleasing their palates and cleansing their systems, arousing their livers, kidneys, stomachs and bowels to a healthy activity. Such is the mission of the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. For sale in 50 cents and $1 bottles.

HOAROUND drops, extra strong, for your cough, at the Candy Kitchen.

SOME antiquarian is said to have discovered that the present winter is, so far, a duplicate of 1816, when the cold that should have been segregated within three or four months was distributed through the twelve, making it a year without a summer.

MR. W. H. BARKSDALE, one of the leading merchants of Hillsboro, Ky., was in town yesterday, visiting his cousin Express Agent Payne. Mr. Barksdale contemplates removing from Hillsboro before long, and thinks very favorably of locating in Maysville.

THE Lexington Drummer says: "One of the saddest things to be observed is the large number of real good Kentucky tobacco worms that are spoiled annually by medical colleges. When God creates a man especially to kill tobacco worms, it is wrong for them to try to practice medicine. It multiplies worms and kills off people."

MISS MATTIE CARR, the milliner, was married last evening at 7:30 o'clock to Mr. Wm. B. Smith, who came to this city last fall from some point in Indiana. The nuptial ceremony was solemnized by Elder R. C. Ricketts at his home on Front street in the presence of a few relatives and friends. The couple left on the steamer Sherley for Pittsburg and other points on their bridal trip.

COLONEL BALDWIN, of Mason, is so impressed with the tobacco abstention movement that he will only put in a half crop, and will aim to raise it as fine as split silk. If all of the producers would do that every year, there would be no trouble about small prices. Tenants wouldn't even have to burn their barns for insurance money. First-class goods are always marketable at paying prices.—Bourbon News.

Two of the luckiest young men in the city of Dayton, O., are Edmond C. and George C. Albert, who held the one-twentieth of ticket No. 58,621, which drew the first capital prize of $300,000 in the Louisiana State Lottery, made in New Orleans on the 13th of November. They have always been honest and hard-working. Their father, Casper Albert, a respectable barber, died several years ago and they have hard and uphill work assisting their widowed mother to support the family.—Dayton (O.) Democrat, December 6th.

COLLECTOR JAMES ROBINSON has made a new assignment of the revenue officers located at this point, to go into effect Friday. Storekeeper T. W. Wheatley is changed from James H. Rogers & Co.'s to Poyntz & Son's, and Mr. C. L. Stanton from Poyntz & Son's to Rogers & Co.'s. J. C. Everett, who has been on night duty at all the distilleries, is assigned to day duty at Poyntz's, while Mr. W. B. McAttee, who has been on day duty at the latter place succeeds Mr. Everett as night Storekeeper. Mr. E. W. Fitzgerald continues as gauger.

MR. STANLEY L. POTTER, who has been assistant draughtsman and principal clerk in the office of Chief Engineer Childre during the construction of the Maysville and Big Sandy railroad, will resign his position Friday and leave for Cincinnati to engage in business as a member of The Miner & Rossiter Furniture Company, at 262 Race street, opposite Shilto's. The incorporators of the company are J. C. W. Miner, H. M. Rossiter, Stanley L. Potter, H. Clay Moore and D. G. Montfort. The Commercial Gazette says: "It is probable that no firm ever started with the number of warm friends that this one has." During his stay here Mr. Potter has made friends of all whom he has met, by his strict attention to business and his gentlemanly conduct on all occasions, and they will sincerely regret to see him leave Maysville.

The Concert.

The entertainment at the opera house last night was a testimonial concert to Miss Lelia Wheeler, and it was a very gratifying one to that talented young lady. The house was well crowded by an appreciative audience. Miss Wheeler and those who assisted her were accorded a handsome reception, and were recalled time and again during the rendition of the various numbers on the programme, which was as follows:

WHO'LL BE NEXT?

Singular Experience of the Oklahoma Bill in the House.

DEATH STEPS IN WHENEVER IT IS CALLED UP FOR DEBATE.

Chief Justice Waite, General Phil. Sheridan and Congressman Barnes—The Case Probably Without Parallel in the History of Legislation—Colonel Lamont Tired of Politics.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Oklahoma bill has had a curious experience in the house, one that has probably not been met in the history of legislation. On each occasion that a day has been fixed for its consideration, the house has been adjourned on account of the death of some public man. Mr. Springer, who is the author and champion of the bill, secured a special order for a vote upon the measure last winter, but on the date fixed the unexpected death of Chief Justice Waite caused the house to adjourn.

It was some time before Mr. Springer could get another special order through the house, but he succeeded late in the summer. Again death interfered; for on the day upon which the special order was to take effect the demise of Gen. Sheridan was announced. Each succeeding attempt was met by increased difficulties, but by a compromise of the opposition Mr. Springer had a special order fixed to take effect on Thursday last. It was on that day that Mr. Barnes's death was announced to the house, and the consequent adjournment once more interfered to prevent consideration of the bill.

The last order, however, is continuous until the final vote is reached. Mr. Springer will call up the measure as soon as the sundry civil appropriation bill is disposed of, which will be one day during the present week. Members are beginning to wonder if the angel of death will again spread his wings in the face of Mr. Springer's pet measure, and, if so, which of their number will be the victim.

Dan. Lamont's Plans.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—A report reached here that Governor Hill will appoint Dan. Lamont state insurance superintendent of New York. Lamont denies it, and says he has had enough political employment.

"I have made a business connection in New York, to begin March 5," he says, "which promises better compensation for the hard work, and is much more attractive for me in every way than political service. I am a candidate for no public position."

SNOW IN THE SOUTH.

It Falls in Pensacola For the Second Time in Twenty-Two Years.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Jan. 30.—Snow fell here Monday for the second time in twenty-two years.

In South Carolina.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 30.—Snow fell here for the first time in many years Monday afternoon.

In Mississippi.

BILOXI, Miss., Jan. 30.—There was a light fall of snow here Monday.

Shot By His Son-in-Law.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 30.—The Times-Democrat's special from Greensburg, La., says that Capt. J. K. Womack, keeper of the Nichols hotel there, was shot and fatally wounded Saturday by his son-in-law, Page Stricklin, at Grangeville.

Buried Under Falling Walls.

DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 30.—The walls of the burned opera house have fallen, crushing wooden buildings adjoining and burying a number of people, including two firemen, in the ruins.

STREET CAR STRIKE.

New Yorkers Compelled to Walk or Stay at Home—Small Riot.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Nearly three years have elapsed since New Yorkers have been forced to walk to business through a tie up of the surface roads. The last tie up, in June, 1886, was a disastrous one for the men. For some time past the men have been quietly preparing to renew the struggle and in accordance with a decision reached Monday evening nearly all the roads have been tied up.

The men some two weeks ago made a demand on the company for $2 per day for ten hours' work in twelve consecutive hours. No reply was received, hence the tie up. The men, in a long address to the public, set forth their grievances, and ask its support.

The strikers comprise the employees of the First, Second, Fourth, Sixth, Eighth and Ninth avenues, Broadway, University Place, Belt, Dry Dock, Avenue B, Avenue D, Courtland street, Grand street, Forty-second street, Central, Cross street, Chambers street, Avenue C, Boulevard, St. Nicholas avenue, and One Hundred and Tenth street, Harlem, Morrisania and Fordham, One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street and Port Morris lines. The Third avenue, Twenty-third street, Fourteenth street, Blackcar street and Christopher street lines, have not been tied up.

A car on Grand street, driven by John Mahoney and escorted by policemen, was attacked by the strikers at Attorney street. The police resisted vigorously with their clubs, but the mob unhitched the horses, upset the car and then slowly retired.

The tie up on the Dry Dock & East Broadway line was a sympathetic one, because of the Brooklyn tie up. Doreen Richardson, president of the Atlantic Avenue line, Brooklyn, being a large stockholder in the Dry Dock & East Broadway company. They had no trouble about hours or pay.

The strikers number several thousand, and seem to be determined in their stand. The streets and avenues through which the car lines pass have a deserted appearance.

The three strikers charged with the killing of Adams, in Brooklyn, are held for murder.

Flood in the South.

SHREVEPORT, La., Jan. 30.—A consider able part of the country is overflowed about thirty miles above here by the levees giving way. An aged negro was rescued in a skiff, and carried to his cousin's house, but was refused admittance. He was frozen to death on a hillside.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA

These twin diseases cause untold suffering.

Doctors admit that they are difficult to cure—so do their patients. Paine's Celery Compound has permanently cured the worst cases of rheumatism and neuralgia—so say those who have used it.

"Having been troubled with rheumatism at the knee and foot for five years, I was almost unable to get around, and was very often confined to my bed for weeks at a time. I used only one bottle of Paine's Celery Comound, and was perfectly cured. I can now jump around, and feel as lively as a boy." FRANK CAROL.

Bureau, Nevada.

and Brighter

any other Dyes.

"Paine's Celery Compound has been a Godsend to me. For the past two years I have suffered with neuralgia of the heart, doctor after doctor failing to cure me. I have now taken nearly four bottles of the Compound, and am free from the complaint. I feel very grateful to you." CHAS. H. LEWIS, Central Village, Ct.

Paine's

Celery Compound

"I have been greatly afflicted with acute rheumatism, and could find no relief until I used Paine's Celery Compound. After using six bottles of this medicine I am now cured of rheumatic troubles." SAMUEL HUTCHINSON, So. Cornish, N. H.

Effects Lasting Cures.

Paine's Celery Compound has performed many other cures as marvelous as these,—copies of letters sent to any address. Pleasant to take,

does not disturb, but aids digestion, and entirely vegetable; a child can take it. What's the use of suffering longer with rheumatism or neuralgia?
